

External Pressures on Your Workforce

Lockdown Legal Trends 2020-21

Overview

- Lockdown has impacted us all.
- Considerable pressures exist for everyone, external to work.
- We will be discussing:
 - Key trends in the legal sector
 - Specific mindset of local clients to the firm
 - Issues facing many people as a result of lockdown

Objective: Generate awareness of personal stresses, events and issues your employees are facing, outside of their working life.

Top Line Legal Trends

- Increase in need for Family Law Services
- Fluctuation and boom in Residential Property Conveyancing
 - Impact on our staff
- Making of Wills & Estate Administration
- Decrease in Personal Injury cases

The Client Mind-set

- Non-Contact fatigue (sick of Zoom..)
- Have done their research – for good or bad!
- Expectation of free advice.
- Understanding and Supportive.

In Conclusion

Still a whole host of things affecting people – amplified by the lockdowns over the last 14 months.

- Family breakdowns
- Access to children
- Increased property market pressures
- Business worries/job security
- Death of friends and family members
- Safeguarding the future.

Lawyers can help, but a healthy and supportive workplace environment will ensure people the time to adjust, recover and heal.
